

WHEN ENOUGH IS ENOUGH:

A CHRISTIAN FRAMEWORK FOR SUSTAINABILITY

Edited by R.J. Berry

APOLLOS

CONTENTS

Foreword	Bishop of Liverpool, the Rt Revd James Jones
	Editor's Note
Chapter 1	Sustainability: God's way or green-wash? R.J. Berry
Chapter 2	Theology of Sustainability Dave Bookless
Chapter 3	The Challenge of Sustainability John Houghton
Chapter 4	Thoughts on the Sustainability of the Non-Human Creation Ghillean Prance
Chapter 5	Consumption and Happiness: Christian Values and an Approach Toward Sustainability Brian Heap and Flavio Comim
Chapter 6	Sustainable Economics Donald Hay
Chapter 7	A Framework for Sustainable Agriculture John Wibberley
Chapter 8	Let Justice Flow Like a Never-Ending Stream Joanne Green
Chapter 9	Sustainability, Resources and Waste Management David Stafford and John Bryant
Chapter 10	Creative Harmony: Isaiah's Vision of a Sustainable Future Margot Hodson
References
Index	